

TOPICS DISCUSSION

ENVIRONMENT

Student 'A'

- Discuss the questions below with your partner.

1. What causes climate change?
2. How would climate change be bad for people and animals?
3. What kinds of energy can replace fossil fuels?
4. What kinds of things cause water pollution?
5. How will rising sea levels be bad for people?
6. What will happen if deforestation continues without stopping?
7. Is it possible for people to live without making any garbage? Explain your answer.
8. Should people protest what is happening to our environment? Why? / Why not?
9. How can you become an environmentalist?
10. How was the environment different 100 years ago?

TOPICS DISCUSSION

ENVIRONMENT

Student 'B'

- Discuss the questions below with your partner.

1. How can we stop or slow down climate change?
2. What kinds of things do people buy that are disposable?
3. What animals may soon become extinct? Why might they become extinct?
4. What kinds of things cause air pollution?
5. Is it possible to live in a world without plastic products? Explain your answer.
6. Explain what recycling is. Why is recycling important?
7. What can people do to protect wildlife?
8. What can you do today that will help our environment?
9. Why should we care about what happens to the environment?
10. How do you think the environment will be different in another 100 years?